

IGNITION INTERLOCK DEVICE (IID)

Questions/Answers

Q: Why was an IID ordered?

A: You have been convicted of an OWI offense with a BAC of 0.15 or higher and/or you refused your blood alcohol test. State law has mandated that if anyone is convicted in these situations, the court must order the IID for a minimum one year time period on all vehicles owned by or registered to the offender.

Q: When does the one year time period for the IID begin?

A: At the time you are issued an occupational license or at the time you reinstate your license after the revocation period.

Q: I don't need an occupational license. Can I just sit out the one year time period the IID must be installed?

A: No. The one year time period commences at the time you receive your occupational license or at the time you reinstate your license after the revocation period. You will not be able to reinstate your license until you install an IID.

Q: When can I apply for an occupational license?

A: You will need to bring proof of IID installation to the DMV on all vehicles owned or registered to you before DMV can issue your occupational license.

Q: Who pays for the installation and maintenance of the IID and how much does it cost?

A: You must pay all costs associated with equipping and maintaining the IID. Costs vary by provider, but average cost is $80.00 for installation plus a monthly fee of about $70.00. Please call the vendors for current installation and maintenance prices.

Q: Where can I get an IID installed?

A: You must call a provider to lease an approved IID. DOT authorized providers include:
