ARREST

This afternoon the Onalaska Police Department, working with the West Central Metropolitan Enforcement Group (WCMEG) arrested a suspect at the Kwik Trip located at the corner of Sandlake and Well Street related to a drug investigation.

Based on information gathered on the suspect by both investigating agencies, the assistance of the La Crosse County Emergency Response Team (ERT) was requested. Several members of the Onalaska Police Department are ERT members. The suspect was taken into custody with minimal incident.

At this time there is no additional information available for release.
