ARREST IN ONALASKA

On June 6th Investigator Chad Marcon of the Onalaska Police Department was investigating allegations of child battery on Kevin R. Humphrey a resident of Onalaska. During the course of the investigation Mr. Humphrey was observed driving in vicinity of his residence. He was subsequently stopped and arrested on charges of child battery.

Upon searching Mr. Humphrey a number of prescription pharmaceuticals were located, in addition to having no proof of prescription for the pharmaceuticals, Mr. Humphrey was also found to be in possession of over $1,500.00 in cash. A vehicle search revealed an additional $12,990.00 in cash, a pound and a half of marijuana and other pharmaceuticals identified as Viagra, Adderall, Oxycodone and Vyvanse.

Investigator Marcon then obtained a search warrant for Mr. Humphrey's residence where additional drugs and paraphernalia were located. In the course of the search Investigator Marcon located evidence that Mr. Humphrey had a storage unit. On June 7th a search warrant was obtained and a search conducted on the storage unit. In excess of 8 pounds of marijuana was discovered,
