

Press Release

Contact: Chad Marcon

Phone: (608)392-0286

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

1 Feb 2017

TIME TO GO WILD WITH THE ONALASKA POLICE DEPARTMENT!

Buffalo Wild Wings in Onalaska is the place to be on Friday February 24th as local law enforcement turn out to support Special Olympics and go wild on wings.

From noon until 8pm Buffalo Wild Wings will donate a portion of all food sales to the Wisconsin Special Olympics and officers from the Onalaska Police Department will be greeting customers and assisting the wait staff.

"We have a long history with Buffalo Wild Wings," said Investigator Pete Jakowski of the Onalaska Police Department, "Their generosity in hosting our annual fundraiser has enabled Special Olympics to assure that their athletes have state of the art equipment. The athletes love helping out at this event, greeting the public and working with the Officers. We are hoping for a good turn out and the citizens of Onalaska never disappoint us."

The event highlight, the wing eating contest, starts promptly at 5:00p.m. as athletes and Officers, Sheriffs and Police Chiefs square off to see who can eat the most wings.

~ MORE ~

"We get representatives from local law enforcement and the special athletes together and see who can eat the most wings. It is always a good natured good time. Come out, cheer for your favorite, eat some excellent food and support a great cause." said Jakowski, "every year Buffalo Wild Wings has donated a lot of money to Special Olympics and it is thanks to the generosity of spirit that is the hallmark of the citizens of the Coulee Region. Hope to see everyone on the 24th."